

Job Description:

Gurtin Municipal Bond Management, a PIMCO company, is seeking an Analyst to join our Investment, Research and Strategy team in our San Diego office the first quarter of 2020. The Analyst will act as a liaison between the Advisory Services, Investment Research, and Portfolio Management teams to address client questions, provide solutions to requests, and support in the expansion of existing and new business for the firm. Given our partnership with PIMCO, our combined AUM exceeds $44B as of November 30, 2019. Our Analyst team is a key contributor in this growth, as their analytical support acts as an engine that drives the efficiency and effectiveness of the internal business groups.

Gurtin/PIMCO is seeking candidates who possess strong quantitative and technical skills, have a keen interest in the markets, and are passionate about pursuing a career in financial services. This is a unique, entry-level opportunity to learn the foundational skills/proficiencies to launch a career in a premier investment management firm.

Responsibilities:

The breadth and diversity of the analytical projects in this role necessitate motivated team members, who thrive in a fast-paced environment. Successful professionals should be able to complete complex tasks in a timely manner and manage multiple requests including:

- Provide critical support to Advisory Services through executing various tasks, including (but not limited to): portfolio analyses, performance reviews, case studies, market analysis, RFIs and DDQs
- Partner with all business areas of the firm to respond to client questions, occasionally engage clients directly, bridge the gap between client requests and Portfolio Management
- Investment implementation with exposure to Portfolio Management
- Produce technical analyses and customized solutions for existing and prospective clients
- Contribute to weekly and monthly market and strategy updates as well as periodic investor updates
- Ensure the firm continues to deliver excellent customer service both directly and indirectly by providing the client facing teams with what they need to do their jobs effectively

Qualifications:

To succeed in our entrepreneurial and progressive environment, qualified candidates should have:

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited 4-year institution
- 0-3 years' experience with a genuine curiosity for investing, markets, and economics
- Strong analytical and quantitative skills
- Able to handle multiple assignments simultaneously, while maintaining attention to detail
- Self-motivated, ethical, and capable of building strong relationships
- Effective communication skills, both oral and written

- Ability to work independently and in a collaborative team environment
- Coding experience is a plus

Benefits:

Gurtin offers a comprehensive portfolio of employee benefits designed to support the health and wellbeing of you and your family.

- Medical, dental, and vision coverage
- Paid time off, market holidays, life insurance and travel coverage
- 401(k) (defined contribution) retirement savings, retirement plan, pension contribution from your first day of employment
- Work/life programs such as parental leave and support, employee assistance plan, commuter benefits, health club discounts, and educational/CFA certification reimbursement programs
- Community involvement opportunities

We are committed to equal employment opportunity regardless of race, color, ancestry, religion, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, age, citizenship, marital status, disability, gender identity or Veteran status.

Company Description:

Gurtin Municipal Bond Management, a PIMCO company, is an investment management firm founded on a simple premise: Do what you do best, and never settle. Serving high and ultra-high net-worth individuals, we provide focused expertise in managing investment-grade municipal portfolios that generate tax-free income. As of November 30, 2019, combined municipal assets under management across Gurtin and PIMCO totaled $44 billion.

Gurtin offers a unique culture that combines the casual and collaborative work environment of the West Coast with the intensity, sophistication, and professionalism of Wall Street. We are always looking to invest in talented individuals who will excel at Gurtin.
