

Mary works with clients to build and manage their private credit and broader alternatives programs. Her other responsibilities at Meketa include serving on the Global Macroeconomic Investment Committee and Private Markets Research Committee. She joined the industry in 2001 and has since worked on the asset management, investment banking, and investment consulting sides of the business. Prior to joining Meketa in 2019, she held positions at Pension Consulting Alliance, as Vice President, Silver Creek Capital Management, at Hewitt EnnisKnupp, as Director, and at Lehman Brothers, as Analyst.